

BOOKSHELF (2018–2020)

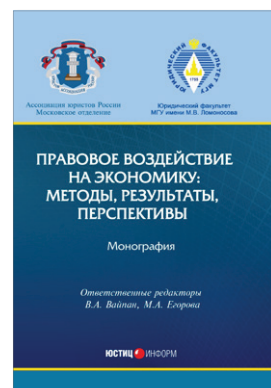

Current problems of modern law and economy in Europe and Asia: Collective monograph. — Vol.1/ MSAL; Association of Russian Diplomats; Association of Lawyers of Russia; Ed.: M.A. Egorova, I.V. Khalevinsky. — M.: Justicinform, 2018. — 344 pp.

Foreign authors: representatives of the Federal Republic Germany, the Republic of Slovakia and the Swiss Confederation. Monograph prepared by the main panelists of the First International Legal Forum «Current Problems of Modern Law and Economy of Europe and Asia» (France, Cannes September 16-20, 2018). It presents the articles of leading lawyers and economists from France, Russia, Germany, Switzerland, Slovakia and China. It considers the current issues of development of modern civil, corporate, competitive and banking law and prospects for further improvements of economic relations in Europe and Asia.

Legal impact on the economy: methods, results, prospects: collective monograph / Lomonosov Moscow State University; Moscow Branch of the Association of Lawyers of Russia; Ed.: V.A. Vaipan, M.A. Egorova. — M.: Justicinform, 2018. — 380 p.

The monograph published the works of the representatives of the Federal Republic of Germany, the Slovak Republic, the Swiss Confederation, the Italian Republic and the Republic of Serbia. It presents the main legal instruments of impact on economic relations, including theoretical problems of the application of the principles and limits of government regulation of entrepreneurship, the balance between private and public interests, public and corporate procurement as well as some legal regulation of economic activities in foreign jurisdictions.

Digital Law: textbook / under. red. V. Blazeva, M. A. Egorova. — M. Prospect 2020. — 640 pp.

Foreign authors: representatives of the Slovak Republic and the French Republic. The textbook is based on the existing legislation. It gives a comprehensive description of the digital law as a complex branch of Russian law.

